A. Purpose

The manipulation of sporting competitions and related activities undermines the integrity of sport.

Manipulation of sporting competitions and matches can be a crime and punishable by law.

This Competition Manipulation and Sports Wagering Policy for Elite Programs and this Policy are intended to supplement such laws and regulations with further rules of professional conduct for those involved in the sport of netball.

These policies are not intended, and should not be interpreted, construed or applied, to prejudice or undermine in any way the application of such laws and regulations.

Relevant Persons and Relevant Organisations must comply with all applicable laws and regulations at all times.

These policies form the foundation of the fight against corruption in the sport of netball in Australia, recognising that World Netball has in place the World Netball Ethics and Anti-Corruption Code (March 2019) that applies to International Netball. These policies recognise the following imperatives of World Netball, which are shared and held by NA:

- a) all netball Matches are to be contested on a level playing field, with the outcome to be determined solely by the respective sporting merits of the competing teams and to remain uncertain until the match is completed. It is this essential characteristic that gives netball its unique appeal; and
- b) public confidence in the authenticity and integrity of the sporting contest and in the uncertainty of its outcome is vital. If that confidence is undermined, the very essence of netball is comprised.

This Policy prescribes Prohibited Conduct which constitutes a breach, as well as offences which must be reported in accordance with the Netball Integrity Policy Framework, Conduct and Disciplinary Policy.
